Happy Chinese New Year!!

It is the Year of the Rat and we at MBL would like to wish you and your family a very happy and healthy Chinese New Year!

We are celebrating the New Year with the release of our new book Motherbridge of Love. Based upon a poem written by an adoptive mother and sent to MBL, it celebrates the bond between parent and child in a very special and unique way.

It was listed as one of the Top Three Children's Books of 2007 by Time Magazine and we hope that it will continue to remind people of the different types of love that can make up a child.

The book will be available to purchase through our website, www.motherbridge.org and all proceeds from the book will be donated to MBL to fund further projects and events.

It is our hope that the book will allow us to further our goals of bridging the gap between adoptive culture and birth culture and raise awareness of the poverty that continues to exist not only in China, but around the world. We hope to organize more trips to allow adopted children return to their birth country and experience the culture of their heritage first hand. By engaging in these cultural exchanges we hope to highlight the need to bridge the poverty gap between the east and west.

We are planning to create a Facebook page for MBL that will list our future events as well as develop a discussion forum, where people from all over the world can participate. Our first planned discussion will focus on Motherbridge of Love; we hope to hear your reflections on the book. If you have any topics or questions you may want to discuss, please feel free to use this source to connect with MBL. We look forward to hearing from you!
